

Ancillary Relief - Recent Developments

19 November 2009, 5.30pm onwards

7 Bedford Row in conjunction with The International Family Law Group
London WC1R 4BS

invitation

Ancillary Relief - Recent Developments

To be chaired by Rachel Langdale QC

Maria Scotland, Barrister, 7 Bedford Row

Maria will speak on setting aside final orders or agreements when there is a change in circumstance

The impact of a substantial drop in asset values post the final order ("the credit crunch") – should the client apply to re-open or set aside the final order?

The implications of Myerson v Myerson

When one parties' income changes: considerations and factors of importance when considering whether to apply to vary spousal maintenance
McFarlane v McFarlane (No. 2)

One party re-marries post the final order (where their case was that they had no intention to do so in the ancillary relief): considering setting aside the order?

Other change of circumstance

Practice and procedure relative to an application to vary or set aside the final order

David Hodson, English and Australian Solicitor & mediator, DDJ at PRFD, consultant with iFLG

David will speak on English and International approaches to financial settlements

The Court's approach to capital distribution post Charman
Recent caselaw developments and trends
International elements: issues to take into account

Craig Holt, Barrister, 7 Bedford Row

Craig will speak on Marital Agreements

Pre and post nuptial agreements
Status of marital agreements in Ancillary Relief
Implications of Radmacher v Granatino
International issues
Checklist of issues to beware of and to take into account

Venue

This seminar will take place on 19 November 2009 at 7 Bedford Row, London, WC1R 4BS. Registration at 5.15pm.

7.30pm Drinks & nibbles

Register for your place

This seminar is accredited with 2 hours CPD

RSVP

Petra Bailey
pbailey@7br.co.uk

