

seven

A seminar for experienced family lawyers, to consider contemporary legal issues and to provide a forum for discussion.

7 Bedford Row's Child & Family Law team invite you to an event in chambers on

28 September 2010, 6pm

Chair: Mr Justice Coleridge	Speakers
"International Relocation: Less Payne for Fathers?"	Brendan Roche
"Parental Alienation: Breaking the Deadlock"	Justin Slater
"Media Intrusion: The Need for Orders?"	Rachel Langdale QC

1.5 CPD points in total
18.00 – 19.30
Followed by refreshments

7 Bedford Row
London
WC1R 4BS

seven

Speaker	Profile
Brendan Roche	Brendan Roche's practice covers all aspects of children law. He is instructed in public and private law proceedings, including care proceedings, adoption, abduction (national and international) and leave to remove cases. He is a member of the Family Law Bar Association and the International Bar Association.
Justin Slater	Justin practises within the full spectrum of child law disputes and has particular experience in those cases requiring expert evidence on welfare issues and the emerging considerations surrounding oral evidence from children.
Rachel Langdale QC	Rachel Langdale QC undertakes private, public law and international children cases. She is described by clients as a stylish and persuasive advocate. She is experienced in advising clients in respect of statements to the media, in applications to permit the reporting of family proceedings, and upon the need (or otherwise) for anticipatory injunctions to be obtained.

For enquiries or any further information contact
Dean Farlam or Paul Eeles on 020 7242 3555

To book your place email codze@7br.co.uk