

seven

7 Bedford Row presents

‘Fraud Trials Without Juries’ The Bottom Line

Guest speaker Mr Ian Lloyd QC discusses the pros and cons of fraud trials without juries, based on his experiences from Australia and Hong Kong.

Chair: Mr Collingwood Thompson QC (7 Bedford Row)

12 August 2010, 5:30pm for a 6pm start at 7 Bedford Row

1 CPD Point

SRA Self Accreditation Ref: BIZ NIBR

Registration: 5:30pm

Seminar: 6.00pm – 7.00pm

Followed by refreshments

7 Bedford Row
London
WC1R 4BS

In 2009, Mr Ian Lloyd QC and Mr Collingwood Thompson QC were both involved in one of the longest running fraud trials in Hong Kong's history.

Speaker: Mr Ian Lloyd QC

Ian has been admitted as a Barrister in Australia, Hong Kong, England and Wales (Gray's Inn) and New York. Having recently been a Justice of the Fiji Court of Appeal, Ian is currently at the Bar in Australia and Hong Kong. He was a Crown Prosecutor in Hong Kong and Sydney and a former General Counsel for the NSW Independent Commission Against Corruption. Ian specialises in the prosecution and defence of white collar and environmental crime.

Chair: Mr Collingwood Thompson QC

Collingwood specialises in cases involving international corruption and major white collar crime. He has a multi-jurisdictional practice with a focus on work in major offshore financial centres including Jersey and Hong Kong. He is ranked as a leading silk for criminal fraud by Chambers & Partners (2010), where his knowledge of mutual legal assistance is reported as 'second to none'.

For enquiries or any further information contact Tom Hickie or Debbie Clark on 020 7400 4445

To book your place email rsvp@7br.co.uk