

Ali Malsher is a partner in the Injury and Medical claims department of the highly rated Anthony Gold Solicitors where she specialises in catastrophic clinical negligence claims . Recommended by both the Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners, Ali specialises in cases involving complex surgery and amputation issues. A member of the SRA panel for clinical negligence specialists she is also a former secretary of the Association of Personal Injury lawyers clinical negligence section. Ali is also a former nurse having trained at St George's Hospital in London. In addition Ali is qualified as a lawyer in the Republic of Ireland and was a former trustee of the International Association of Irish Lawyers. She is author of the book Medical Records for lawyers and lectures widely on a range of medico legal issues.