

Dr Sunil Gupta is a Consultant haematologist and haem-oncologist based at Lewisham and Greenwich NHS trust.

Dr Gupta has over 24 years of experience in clinical and laboratory Haematology. He trained with few of the best institutes in the World, namely; Kings College Hospital London, Royal North Shore Hospital, Sydney Australia, National University Hospital (NUH) Singapore and All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) New Delhi, India. He attained CCST from London Deanery at Kings College Hospital. He undertook clinical research in anthracycline toxicity in children suffering from acute lymphoblastic leukaemia.

Dr Gupta has been a consultant haematologist since 2011. His area of speciality is haematology-oncology but has a keen interest in clotting disorders and anaemias as well. He led the research and development (R and D) in haematology at East Sussex healthcare, and also at Lewisham and Greenwich NHS trust. He opened several new clinical trials in haem-oncology at both sites. He has a deep interest in teaching and training and has been awarded the title of “Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturer” by Brighton and Sussex medical school.

Dr Gupta has completed Bond Solon course and acquired Cardiff University certification on expert witness. Dr Gupta has been writing medical reports as an expert witness since 2018 and has provided more than 30 reports. . Dr Gupta has given evidence in court 5 times.