

RACHEL LANGDALE KC

Year of call 1990    Silk 2009

Rachel Langdale KC undertakes Children Law cases (public, private and international), Judicial Review and Public Inquiries.

LEGAL EXPERTISE

Family Law

In acting for parents and interveners in care proceedings, Rachel Langdale KC has extensive experience in presenting and challenging complex medical evidence. She is regularly instructed where causing death or serious injury is alleged. She has significant expertise in calling and cross-examining complainants of sexual abuse (with or without the use of a witness intermediary) and frequently acts on behalf of vulnerable adults.

Rachel is instructed in appellate work and has argued jurisdictional points at first instance on behalf of individuals and public authorities. Her advice has been sought upon the need (or otherwise) for anticipatory injunctions to be obtained in circumstances where there is media interest in a case. She has advised surrounding the use of the inherent jurisdiction and wardship; safeguarding procedure and practice; applications of policy and the provision of services. She also undertakes relocation cases, and provides a committed service to those she represents.

Selected Cases

[Re: BR and others \(Transparency Order: Finding of Fact Hearing\) \[2023\] EWFC 9](#)

Reporting an order in a transparency pilot scheme, permitting accredited journalists to report on family proceedings normally held in private. Poole J adopted the template Transparency Order attached to the President's Guidance, with some variations, to be used in an upcoming Family Court fact-finding hearing. The template, which could be amended, did not overturn the Children Act 1989 s.97 which provided that nothing could be published which identified a child in the proceedings.

[A v B \[2023\] 3 WLUK 621](#)

The Court of Appeal affirmed Mrs. Justice Knowles' rejection of a move to import criminal concepts into fact finding cases in the family courts, specifically with regards to allegations of sexual abuse between two adults. Parliament had comprehensively considered the Family Court's approach to domestic abuse during the passage of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 into law.
